Waiting Well

Simeon and Anna, Candlemas, and faith in a hurried world

February often feels like a month of waiting. The decorations have long been packed away, spring still feels distant, and the new year's energy has faded. The days are lengthening, but only just. Into this quieter moment in the church's year comes Candlemas, and with it the figures of Simeon and Anna—two people who knew a great deal about waiting.

When Mary and Joseph bring the infant Jesus to the Temple, Simeon and Anna are already there. They are not rushing through. They are not distracted or preoccupied. They are waiting—waiting for God's promises to be fulfilled. And they have been waiting for a very long time.

Simeon has been assured that he will not see death before he has seen the Lord's Messiah. Anna has spent decades in prayer and fasting, living faithfully through loss and change. Neither of them knows when the promise will be fulfilled. They simply keep turning up, day after day, trusting that God is at work even when nothing seems to be happening.

This is not the kind of waiting our culture encourages. We live in a hurried world, where speed is prized and delay feels like failure. We expect quick answers, fast results, instant solutions. Waiting can feel like wasted time—or worse, like being forgotten.

But Simeon and Anna show us another way. Their waiting is not passive or empty. It is active, attentive, faithful. They wait with prayer. They wait with hope. They wait with their eyes open to the things of God. And when the moment comes, they recognise it.

That may be one of the most striking things about this story. Jesus does not arrive with fanfare. There is no announcement, no crowd, no sign saying "this is the one." He is a small child, carried in his parents' arms. Yet Simeon takes him in his own arms and praises God. Anna speaks about him to all who are looking for redemption. Their long waiting has tuned their hearts to notice God's quiet arrival.

Candlemas reminds us that God often works like this—slowly, gently, without spectacle. Faith is not always about dramatic moments or sudden clarity. More often it is about staying present, staying open, and trusting that God is faithful even when the fulfilment seems delayed.

Cont.

Cont.

Many of us are waiting for something: for healing, for resolution, for change, for clarity, for guidance, for peace. Simeon and Anna do not offer easy answers, but they do offer reassurance. God does not forget those who wait. Time spent in prayer is not wasted time. Hope held quietly is not misplaced. As the candles are lit at Candlemas, we are reminded that even a small flame can push back the darkness. Waiting well is not about rushing God—it is about trusting that, in God's time, the light will come.

With every blessing

Vicar Jane xx

The January meeting was very well attended. Amber Ho came to help us practise Tai Chi Balls and Qigong. This was great fun.

Several of our ladies decorated St Matthews Church with flowers for Christmas. It was very much appreciated. Everyone said what a great job they had done. Our President, Anne, read a lesson at the Carol Service at St Matthews.

Coming up, we have lots of new ideas for fun packed events.
The Dining Club, Book Club and Go For It will be ongoing.

The WI meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month, 7.30 at the Cosey Club.
All Welcome.

United Benefice Mothers Union

We started the year well, with our usual annual lunch. This time we enjoyed lovely food and good company at the Old Hall in Sandbach where it was warm and dry on a damp January morning.

Once again, we are hoping to support Chance Changing Lives in Crewe by donating the items they require for those they support. If you would like to know more, just ask.

Our next meeting is our AGM and will be held on Wednesday February 18th at 2 pm. A proposed programme of our meetings for this year is available in Church.

Puff pastry lemon and almond tart

Ingredients

375g pack ready-rolled puff pastry
175g (6oz) good-quality lemon curd
90g (3oz) butter, softened
90g (3oz) caster sugar
1 medium egg
30g (1oz) ground almonds
125g (4oz) self-raising flour
Zested rind 1 lemon and 4 tbsp juice
30g (1oz) flaked almonds
28 x 18cm (11 x 7in) tray-bake tin

Method

Set the oven to 200°C (400°F, gas mark 6). Unroll the pastry and use it to line the tin, cutting slits into the corners to make it fit. Use scissors to trim the two short sides down to the same height as the long sides.

Spread a layer of lemon curd on the base. Cream the butter and sugar until light and fluffy, then beat in the egg. Fold in the ground almonds, flour, lemon zest and juice. Spoon the mixture over the lemon curd then spread it evenly. Spread with flaked almonds.

Bake for 35 minutes, near the bottom of the oven, until golden. Cool for 5 minutes in the tin then turn out to serve warm or cool.

Prayer Subjects

Uniting with Christ in Suffering

Dear Lord, In our moments of suffering, help us to unite our hearts with Christ, who bore our pain and sorrow.

May we find strength in His example and comfort in His presence.

Teach us to embrace our trials as a path to deeper faith and understanding.

Let our struggles draw us closer to You, transforming our pain into purpose.

Amen.

Reflection on the Passion of Christ

Our Father, In this sacred moment, we reflect on the profound suffering and love of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

May His Passion inspire us to embrace our own trials with grace and compassion.

Help us to understand the depth of His sacrifice and to live in a way that honours His enduring love.

Strengthen our faith as we walk in His footsteps.

Amen.

Prayer for Lenten Renewal and Faith

Dear Lord,

As we embark on this Lenten journey, guide our hearts to repentance and reflection. Help us grow in faith and charity, drawing closer to You through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. May this season renew our spirits and strengthen our commitment to Your will.

Amen.

In Memoriam

Funeral of Enis Thompson, 9th January at St Michael & All Angels.

Funeral of Peter Hale, , 9th January at St Matthew's

Funeral of Irene Bailey, 14th January at St Matthew's.

Funeral of Mark Lycett, 16th January at St Michael & All Angels.

Around The Community

The imposition of ashes is the moment in the Ash Wednesday service when a minister places ashes on a person's forehead in the shape of a cross as a public sign of repentance, mortality, and the beginning of Lent. It is one of the most recognisable Christian practices of the year and is observed across many Western Christian traditions.

What the Imposition of Ashes Means

- Repentance: Ashes have symbolised sorrow for sin since biblical times. Wearing them expresses a desire for spiritual renewal.
- Human mortality: The traditional words—"Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return"—remind believers of life's fragility and dependence on God.
- Identity in Christ: The ashes are placed in the shape of a cross, signifying belonging to Jesus and the call to follow Him.

Where the Ashes Come From

- The ashes are made by burning the palm branches from the previous year's Palm Sunday.
- This symbolically connects Christ's triumphal entry with the call to humility and conversion.

When It Happens

- The imposition takes place during Ash Wednesday services, which mark the first day of Lent, a 40day period of prayer, fasting, and preparation for Easter.

Don't Give Up

When things go wrong
as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems
all up hill,
When the funds are
low and the debts
are high,
and you want to smile,
but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing
you down a bit,
Rest if you must,
but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists
and turns,
as every one of us
sometimes learns,
and many a failure turns
about,
when he might have won
had he stuck it out;
Don't give up though the
pace seems slow-
You may succeed with
another blow.
Success is failure turned
inside out-
The silver tint of the clouds
of doubt,
and you never can tell how
close you are,
It may be near when it
seems so far:
So stick to the fight when
you're hardest hit-
It's when things seem worst
that you must not quit.
